

OLD SAILORS' HOME IS GONE.

SITE NEEDED AS PART OF THE NEW BRIDGE ANCHORAGE.

Furnishings of the Cherry Street House Auctored Off Yesterday—Bull in 1842 and Had Sheltered 200,000 Seamen.

A sailor who navigated with a lurch and whose jacket was thrown open to show a bare chest, on which were the outlines of a full-rigged ship, staggered up to the Saviors' Home at 100 Cherry street about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. As he struck the first step a woman carrying a cargo of crockery was dead ahead.

The sailor staggered to port only to be rammed by a bewhiskered man with a mattress around his body sash-like; and as he heeled under the blow he careened into an old-fashioned organ, which was being trundled down the steps.

The sailor crept up the stone steps like a ship in a fog and passed a line of strange craft bearing iron bedsteads, tables, chairs and kitchen utensils. At the top he came to anchor.

"Who's the cap'n?" he roared.

"See the auctioneer," said one.

The sailor bellowed for Capt. H. O. Appleby, who had charge of the home.

Finally the captain appeared and told him that the city had grabbed the home because it needed the ground for an anchorage for a bridge and the water shipwrecked and friendless sailors would have to find other quarters until the American Seamen's Friend Society could build a new home.

The tangled wayfarer was the last sailor to leave the building which has been a home for sailors in this port for more than sixty years. There were some hundred housed, fed and clothed and ships found for them without cost. Sailors who had money were boarded for $5 a week. At one time as many as 400 were cared for in a single night. Recently there have been about 200 nightly. More than 200,000 sailors have stayed at the home since it was built.

The building, which is to be torn down, was put up in 1842, and with its deep brick porch and its tall stone columns was a landmark in the neighborhood. It had 200 rooms, each with a window. On the ground floor was a chapel, a library and a reading room. Every night services were held in the chapel by H. G. Fithian, the chaplain.

By last night the house had been dismantled. All day a motley crowd of East Siders had overrun the building, and when the last regular lodger, Fred Smith, a sailor, who has stayed at the house off and on for twenty years, got out, the bargain seekers and the auctioneer took possession.

With a whoop the waiting crowd surged through the home examining everything. The furnishings of each bedroom were alike—a bureau, looking glass, two iron cots and two chairs. Some of the late lodgers had left many things dear to a sailor. In one room was a pocket edition of a Bible, the fly leaf bearing the picture of an old gray-haired woman, the word "Mother" scrawled beneath. On the bureau in the same room were a paper-covered edition of "David Copperfield," two cheap novels and an oilskin coat.

The bidding on the furniture was very conservative. The sale lasted until 4 o'clock, and by that time practically the entire house was stripped. Very little was realized.

REFUGEES FROM KISHINEFF.

Family of Three Arrives—Most of the Hunted Jews Going Elsewhere.

The Red Star steamship Vanderland, which arrived yesterday morning, brought, in the steerage, a number of Jews, three of whom were from Kishineff. They were Isaac Ackerman, his wife, Elka, and three-year-old daughter. Ackerman is a wine merchant, 28 years old. He had lived in Kishineff for a year. He said last night that when the riots began his brother Moses, a private in the Russian Army, was visiting him and the brother's uniform scared off the rioters. Ackerman and his family were able to go to the house of a Gentile friend, who protected them until the disturbances were over.

Ackerman said he heard on good authority that the police captain of the Lunumera district, asked the chief of police, soon after the riots started, what he should do and was told to act as if he pleased as no orders had been received from St. Petersburg. The captain, according to Ackerman, did all he could to stop the rioting and as a result no Jews were killed in his district.

As soon as the riots were stopped by the authorities, Ackerman disposed of his property he had been able to save and left Kishineff for this country. He spent all his money for his passage and arrived here without a cent.

His brother-in-law, Nathan Rubin of 21 Clinton street, met him at Ellis Island and got a room for him at 55 Rutgers street, where he is now staying.

There were no other refugees on the Vanderland, so far as could be learned. Jews who are active in raising funds for the relief of the Kishineff sufferers said they do not expect that a great many oppressed Jews will come to this country. Many have left Russia for Germany and Australia.

A letter received yesterday from the relief committee in Kishineff says that forty Jews were killed in the riots, thirty-eight were seriously injured that many of them may die, and about four hundred were injured. An appeal is signed by Dr. Michael, Governor Rabbi M. Ettinger, Dr. Bernstein-Kahan and Shalom Perlmutter and Moses Kigman, the bankers who are treasurers of the fund.

The fund at the State Bank reached $60,000 yesterday morning and during the day $1,000 more was received. Among the contributions was one of $500 sent by J. Cohen, a Grand street merchant, who gave $3 per cent of his receipts from May 15 to 25. The proceeds of the performance at the New Star Theatre on Friday night will go to the Kishineff fund.

To-night the big meeting of protest will be held in Carnegie Hall, when the Mayor, ex-President Cleveland, President Schurman of Cornell, the Rev. Mr. Dwight Hillis, the Rev. Dr. Robert S. MacArthur and Edward M. Shepard will speak. The Hebrew Business Congress, which is in session at the Hotel New York, will hold a protest meeting at the Grand Theatre on Monday.

An indignation meeting to protest against the massacre of Jews in Kishineff, Russia, was held last night in the Harlem Casino under the auspices of Mount Vernon Lodge of the Free Sons of Israel. The Rev. Dr. Madison C. Peters, the Rev. Dr. Silverman, Congressman Goldfogle, I. A. Hopper, Senator S. S. Slater, Samuel Straubourger, and ex-Governor Ferdinand Levy denounced the outrages and resolutions were adopted calling on President Roosevelt to protest to Russia against the maltreatment of Jews.

KISHINEFF PROTEST MEETING.

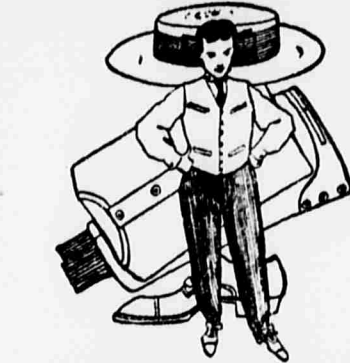

The Rev. Madison C. Peters Talks to the Free Sons of Israel.

The Rev. Dr. Madison C. Peters of Baltimore was the principal speaker at a meeting held in the Harlem Casino last night under the auspices of the Independent Order of Free Sons of Israel to protest against the Kishineff outrages. Dr. Peters devoted a part of his remarks to the statements credited to Count Cassini that the Jews in Russia are not an agricultural but a money-lending class. Said he:

The Russian Ambassador either doesn't know what's going on in Russia or he isn't telling the truth. The Jews in Russia are not allowed to own land, and the only land they can live on is so poor that even the Russians couldn't raise a row on it.

They may not enter the trades and the professions that pay well and their only means of subsistence is the sale of their wares to the poor and ignorant peasants who seem to think the easiest way to pay their debts is by selling out the Jews.

Dr. Peters declared that America's skirts were not clear of anti-Semitism. He had no doubt that Russian papers were to-day quoting accounts of the recent Rabbi Joseph funeral riots in New York. The Russian Jews were good citizens, and he was glad more were coming. The Italian immigrants were a thousand times worse, he declared.

Why, said Dr. Peters, "a high city official told me the other day that he didn't believe there was an Italian on the subway that didn't carry either a dagger, a pistol or dynamite."

Dr. Joseph Silverman of Temple Emanuel, El, Congressman Goldfogle, Gen. James O. O'Brien, M. S. Stern and Ferdinand Levy also spoke. Resolutions were adopted calling on President Roosevelt to use the friendly offices of the United States with Russia to prevent more massacres. About $200 was raised for the Kishineff sufferers.

TAMMANY TO KISHINEFF, $2,500.

Col. Bartlett Tells of the Wigwag's Part in the History of the City.

The meeting of the General Committee of Tammany Hall last night served the double purpose of celebrating the city's anniversary and expressing the sentiment of the organization on the Russian outrages. The Historical Society, the Academy of Design and other public institutions are laying the foundations of the public school system.

The resolutions said: That the present members of Tammany Hall in the general Newell Dwight Hillis, the Rev. Dr. Robert S. MacArthur and Edward M. Shepard will speak. Another Wanamaker PIANO SALE Is Ready Today

Forty-four used pianos have accumulated in our warerooms, which are now cramped because of operations on our new building south of Ninth street; so we must get you to take them off our hands.

We've made prices to stir up your enthusiasm, if anything will.

The cheapest attraction centers around the group of superb Mason & Hamlin pianos that have just come in from being out on rent. They deserve much better prices than you need pay today; and would bring them if we were not so hasty. It's yours to profit by our necessity.

And Remember—if you do not wish to pay cash, you can arrange to buy any of these pianos on the easiest terms you ever knew. We have offered larger numbers—we never offered a collection of pianos under-price in which the average of quality was so high as in these today.
